

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jette Goller Kloth Nieland, Skovbrynet 42, 8000 Aarhus C., Denmark, Phone +45 86 14 22 12 Mobile +45 20 73 70 79
E-mail: jette.nieland@meta-iq and jgkn@acindria.com

Education

1. Master learning employment – Economy and International trading - by International Trading Company Thorvald Pedersen A/S, Kolding and Business School Kolding.1973
2. Systems Thinking and practice a Master training program at John F. Kennedy University, Orinda, California, USA, 1992
3. Master's in clinical and Business psychological and organizational program at University of Aarhus. Master's in systems Thinking, 1994
4. Authorized by the Danish Psychologist Association, 1996
5. Training and International credit generating courses at Master's and Ph.D. level over the years in the area brain diseases, medicine, crises. Understanding the combination of biology, neuropsychology, social psychology-cultural environment. Organizational and business understanding

Employment

- 1970 – 1973 Economy and international training program at Thorvald Pedersen, Kolding, Denmark
- 1973 – 1979 Assistant at the Bacteriological and Chemical laboratories at the Control center for food and water supplies, Varde, Denmark
- 1980 – 1984 Financial work, secretary Governing Council work at Journalist High School Denmark, Aarhus, Department for salary Aarhus Commune and the Civil Defense Risskov, Denmark
- 1984 - 1987 Project Manager at Cytogenetic Laboratory (The Center for Psychiatric Research) Aarhus University Hospital Risskov, Denmark
- 1991 – 1992 Systems clinical work with severe Family cases at Community Counseling Center, Pleasant Hill California, USA
- 1994 – 1996 The Municipality of Aalborg, performing clinical work with young people and families and supervision and training of staff
- 1995 – 1999 Independent, part-time Clinical Psychological Practice work.
- 1996 – 1999 Aalborg University Hospital the department for Children. Responsible for the clinical work at the department for oncology, the department for psychosomatic diseases and diabetes. Training, supervision and education of the staff.
- 1999 – 2000 Aalborg University, the Faculty of Arts, Denmark. Project supervisor for students with psychology as their minor at the bachelor's degree program
- 1998 – 2010 Cooperation agreement with Falck Healthcare A/S regarding work within the field of emergency relief, welfare, organization/management and instruction
- 1999 – 2007 Founding a Clinical Psychological Practice, Denmark
- 1999 - Agreement with the Danish Public Health Insurance and receiving the right to treat patients within the Danish Public Health Service together with specialist in the area of medicine and psychiatry
- 2007 - Founder/owner and CEO of Acindria ApS, Business and Clinical Psychology
- 2008 - Co-founder of Mata-IQ ApS. Research and development to establish the efficacy of treating brain diseases by modifying the metabolism
- 2008 – 2013 Founder and partner of Metabolistik and Metanovi
- 2013 - Meta-IQ ApS taken over by Acindria ApS
- 2009 – 2014 Appointed to CEO of Meta-IQ
- 2014 - Founder, partner, board member of Meta-IQ
- 2014 – 2018 Member of the Board of Meta-IQ
- 2018 - 2019 Chairman of the board of Meta-IQ
- 2019 - Vice Chairman of the board of CPTone BIOTECH ApS
- 2019 - CINO CPTone BIOTECH ApS

Publications:

1. Blocking of carnitine palmitoyl transferase 1 potentially reduces stress-induced depression in rat highlighting a pivotal role of lipid metabolism, Anne Skøttrup Mørkholt, Ove Wiborg, Jette Goller Kloth Nieland, Søren Nielsen, John Dirk Nieland. Scientific Reports, 2019. Anne Skøttrup Mørkholt has revived Ph.d in jan 2019.
2. Inhibition of carnitine palmitoyl transferase 1 potentially treats experimental allergic encephalitis, Anne Skøttrup Mørkholt, Agnete Larsen Shohreh Issazadeh-Navikas, Laura Arbour, Michal Krystian Okliski, Jette Goller kloth Nieland, Tae-Hwan Kwon, Søren Nielsen, John Dirk Nieland. 2019
3. Blocking carnitine palmitoyl transferase 1 is highly efficacious in the treatment of Parkinson's disease: A new way to a cure? Michael Sloth Trabjerg, Dennis Christian Andersen, Kasper Mørk, Marie-Louise Skjønnemand, Michal K. Oklinski, Anne Skøttrup Mørkholt, Lona J. Kroese, Colin E.J.Pritchard, Ivo J. Huijbers, Søren Nielsen, John Dirk Nieland. Michael Sloth Trabjerg har Ph.d. in process.

Key abilities

- Worked with numerous diseases areas from a clinical psychology perspective with special knowledge in the area of oncology, psychosomatic diseases, diabetes and brain diseases. Specialized in the area of Stress related diseases and understanding how different area influences each other.
- The last 25 years worked with and done research in the area of brain diseases from a systemic, psychological, cultural, a genetic as well as a biochemical level. On a value-based background the knowledge developed over the years come together in the research done in Meta-IQ since 2008.
- Educated in systemic understanding and has an overview in complicated situations. Has a strong ability doing strategic planning and thinking!
- Established strong work partnerships and worked with different organizations on an International Level.